Historical Notes

THE First Congregational Church was organized March 27, 1855, with services conducted by a Council of Churches called for the purpose. This was the result of an effort begun in the organization of a Sunday School, July 3, 1853 in the Brick School House by Geo. Watson. Public worship was soon begun, conducted by Rev. Joel Kennedy and other ministers from the vicinity. June 19, 1854 the First Congregational Society of Niagara City was incorporated with Elihu P. Graves, Marcus Adams, William H. Childs, George Watson, Oliver H. Day, John Fink, James Vedder, Henry P. Whitbeck and William O. Buchanan as Trustees.

March 15, 1855, James Vedder presented the Society with the lot on Erie (now Cleveland) Ave., still occupied by the Church, and subscriptions were at once received for a church building.

On the second day of September in the same year Rev. J. O. Knapp began his pastorate as the first settled minister of the Church. He was installed by Council on the 25th day of September, Rev. Henry Martyn Dexter, D. D. of Boston, preaching the Sermon.

On the 10th of September the Corner Stone of the new Church was laid and in March 1856 the chapel in the basement was finished and occupied. In October 1857 the main audience room was finished and occupied. Dedication services was held October 29th 1857.

The Meeting House has been renovated from time to time. July 10, 1884 the organ was installed. July 27, 1891 the stained glass windows were added. At the semi-centennial anniversary of the Church organization, Rev. Franklin J. Estabrook was installed with the sermon by Rev. Amory H. Bradford, Moderator of the National Council, who had preached his first sermon from the pulpit of this church during the pastorate of his father, Rev. B. F. Bradford. At this anniversary plans were proposed for the reconstruction of the interior of the meeting-house which were carried out during the summer at an expense of about $8,500.00 and the present beautiful house was rededicated for service Sunday Dec. 31, 1904.

Raymond B. Tolbert began the present ministry Easter Sunday, April 7th, 1912. To date quite a number of important developments have taken place. In the Autumn of 1913 a debt raising campaign was undertaken, which resulted in the liquidation of all outstanding debts on the Church property. The Congregational Workers and the affiliated societies of the Church raised a thousand dollars of the debt. During the early months of the present year, the organ was entirely rebuilt and a strictly modern electric blower installed at a cost of more than six hundred dollars; five hundred dollars of this amount being guaranteed by the Congregational Workers.

Since the present ministry began, nearly two hundred have been received into the membership of the Church, which brings its present enrollment up to three hundred and seventy.

All departments of the Church give promise of large growth in the days ahead.

Standing Rules and By-Laws of the First Congregational Church, Adopted at the Annual Meeting, Held March 1915

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The Church shall be called the First Congregational Church of Niagara Falls; incorporated as the First Congregational Church of Niagara City.

ARTICLE II.

COVENANT.

The Covenant by which this Church exists as a distinct body, and which every member accepts, is as follows:

Acknowledging Jesus Christ to be our Savior and Lord, and accepting the Holy Scriptures as our rule of faith and practice, and recognizing the privilege and duty of uniting ourselves for Christian fellowship, the enjoyment of Christian ordinances, and the public worship of God, and the advancement of His kingdom in the world, we do now in the sight of God and invoking his blessing, solemnly covenant and agree with each other to associate ourselves to be a Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, as warranted by the word of God.

We agree to maintain the institutions of the Gospel, to submit ourselves to the orderly administration of the affairs of the Church, and to walk together in brotherly love.

And this we do depending on the aid of our heavenly Father who so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son for our Salvation and of Jesus Christ who hath redeemed us in His blood, and of the Holy Spirit our Comforter and Guide.

ARTICLE III.

CHARACTER.

Section 1. POLITY. Its government is vested in the body of believers in Christ who compose it. It is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body, but it recognizes and sustains the obligations of mutual counsel and co-operation common to the churches of our order, and it is in fellowship with all churches who acknowledge Jesus the Christ as Redeemer and Lord.

Section 2. DOCTRINE. It receives the Scriptures as authority in matters of faith and practice. Its understanding of the Christian truth contained therein is in general accord with the belief of our Churches in the United States which we think to be fairly set forth in the National Council's creed of 1913, printed herewith.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. QUALIFICATIONS. Its membership consists of such persons as confess Jesus Christ to be their Savior and Lord and who after due examination by the Standing Committee or by the Church as to their qualifications or credentials have been received into its fellowship in the form prescribed by vote of the Church.

Section 2. The reception of members shall ordinarily be upon a Lord's day Service set apart for the Communion and shall be by the form approved by the Church and accompanying these articles.

Section 3. DUTIES. Members are expected first of all to be faithful in the spiritual matters essential to Christian living and also to attend habitually the services of the Church, to give regularly, according to their means, for its support and charities; and to share in its organized work.

Section 4. RIGHTS. Members in good and regular standing may act, vote and hold any office in the Church; and shall be entitled to honorable dismissal at their request.

Section 5. TERMINATION OR SUSPENSION. The tenure of membership is subject to the usage of the Congregational Churches especially as follows:

1. Any member in good and regular standing is entitled to receive a letter to any Church in fellowship on request. In case of removal from the community he should promptly make such a request. Such a letter shall be valid for one year only and such restriction shall be stated in the letter.

If a member desires to join a religious body, not in fellowship with this Church, and which would therefore not receive its letter, the Church may, at his request, give him a certificate of his good standing and terminate his membership.

If a member in good standing requests release from his covenant obligations to this Church, for reasons which the Church may finally deem satisfactory after faithful and kindly effort to continue the relationship has been made, such request shall be granted and the membership indefinitely suspended.

2. If a member of the Church shall for the period of six months refuse to attend the services or to contribute to its worship, activities or charities and if the Standing Committee do not find good reason for such delinquency; after brotherly effort has been made to restore such a member to the service of the Church without success; such member shall be held to be delinquent and his rights of good standing shall be suspended, until by a correction of his life he shall restore himself to good and regular standing.

If a member of the Church who is absent from the community shall not in like manner communicate with the Church year by year nor contribute to its support, the Standing Committee, after fraternal inquiry into the circumstances may terminate his good standing until such time as he shall restore himself by the fulfillment of his covenant duties.

Members of the Church, delinquent as above, shall receive the special care of the Standing Committee and every faithful effort shall be made to restore them to good standing. Should such efforts unhappily fail of their purpose, the Standing Committee shall after two years' of such delinquency, present the names to the Church and the Church may by vote recognize that such members have withdrawn from fellowship and indefinitely suspend the membership.

3. Should any member become an offence to the Church and to its good name by immoral or unchristian conduct, the Church may by vote terminate the membership; but only after faithful efforts have been made to bring such a member to repentance and amendment and then only after due notice and hearing as provided in Article IX.

4. Any member whose standing has been suspended or terminated may be restored by vote of the Church, if for any offence, upon evidence of repentance and reformation or, if on any account of continued absence, upon satisfactory explanation.

Date of Annual Meeting changed to 4th Tuesday in February at Annual Meeting 3/4/1936

FORM RECOMMENDED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL AND ADOPTED BY THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The persons to be received on Confession of Faith coming as their names are called before the Congregation, the Minister shall repeat the following, or other, passages of Scripture:

"What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits towards me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all the people."

"Whosoever therefore shall confess before men, him will I confess also before My Father which is in Heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in Heaven."

"For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

The Minister shall then say:

Beloved, we greet you at this altar. Your presence here is a testimony that you have accepted the great fundamental facts of the Christian life and that it is your purpose to be a blessing to this Church as you thus enter its fellowship. You have a right to expect that the Church will prove a blessing to you and that it may aid you in life's difficulties, rejoice with you in your hours of victory and sympathize with you in times of pain and sadness.

With this great company who from time to time express the abiding of things of the Church with your fellow believers, you will now join in earnestly repeating this noble statement of our common heritage in faith.

The members of the Church here rise and join with those to be received in repeating the common expression of faith.

AN EXPRESSION OF FAITH.

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness, and love; and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Savior, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men.

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God, and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood. Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

COVENANT.

Thus confessing with us and with the Church universal, your Christian faith you now enter into this covenant of service, with the confident assurance that in blessing others you shall be blest.

THE CONFIRMATION.

Accepting that earlier seal of baptism received in infancy or other years, may the God of all grace through Christ the Master, confirm you in all things that in the end you may appear blameless before His Presence.

Those who have not previously been baptized are addressed as follows:

Recognizing the rite of baptism as one of the great and historic ordinances of the Church, you hereby receive it as a symbol of a pure heart, made so through your desire and the grace of Jesus Christ.

The Minister shall then say:

And now to you who have accepted these vows of obedience and trust, God declares to you through His Word and through your conscience, that He will never forsake you if you are faithful and that He will lead you through all the experiences of life, causing you to grow in the knowledge and power of spiritual things, and in the end that you shall come victoriously into the presence of your ascended Lord to reign and rejoice with Him.

Those who are to be received by letter are addressed by the Minister thus:

Kindred in Christ who with joy acknowledge your former vows made elsewhere, we greet you as fellow laborers in His service and fellow pilgrims to His promised rest.

Addressing all entering into the membership of this Church, the Minister shall say:

Beloved, having in all these things made public your earnest purpose to live the Christian life as far as in you lies, you hereby accept as your ideals the system of Christian truth held by the churches of this order, and of this Church into whose fellowship you now enter.

You cordially enter into all its activities, stand ready to further its life and usefulness, to sustain its services of worship, its charities, its larger work, and to live with us in the loving bonds of Christian fellowship.

The members of the Church shall here rise and say with the Minister:

We then the members of this Church, do affectionately welcome you into this household of faith. We pledge to you our sympathy, our help, and our prayers that you may evermore increase in the knowledge and love of God.

God grant that loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared while we dwell together on earth for the perfect fellowship of the Saints in Light.

Here the Minister may give to each the hand of fellowship, together with some appropriate charge from the Scripture, after which he shall pronounce one of the following benedictions:

Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his Glory, with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion, and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Now the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
